P-Party

Last Thursday's P-Party was a great success! Club 8 was crammed with party people dressed up as pirates, paparazzi, penguins and more. DJs Sebastian Faraday and Christel Ball turned the place upside down and we all got a bit too drunk. Best part of the evening: our own Babet Klaassen as Poison Ivy won the prize for best costume! The first pictures of the party, taken by Sebas Wesselings, can be found on the Facebook of student association SES, here.

Drinks

More talk about alcohol: our first drinks, held at CREA Café on September 29, were also a success! The board was pleasantly surprised by the number of people showing up and we hope you will all attend our second drinks (and constitutieborrel) as well: November 3, 17:00pm at CREA Café! Normally our drinks will be held on the last Thursday of the month, but this month the last Thursday is during reading week and we don't want you to get too hung-over and fail your tests! ### Book Club

Some of you may already have heard about our plan to start a book club. We are currently looking for a place where we can have the monthly meetings and the special book club page on the website (with an e-form to make signing up much easier) will go live soon. We are also discussing the option of a discount pass for members of the book club with Athenaeum. With the discount pass, you can buy any book from the English literature section with 10% off. The idea is to keep the membership very casual. You sign up once for € 2,50 and you will get the discount pass. From that moment on, you can attend all meetings but you can also skip a meeting if you don't like the book we are reading that month. The books we will be reading, will be modern classics such as A Clockwork Orange, 1984, The Great Gatsby and so on. If there is a film version of the book, we might also arrange a film screening and we will publish background information about the books to be read on a special book club member page on the website, password protected and all. So if you wish to become a member of Etcetera's Book Club, keep an eye on the website!

UvA News

Each month we receive several emails about job offers, traineeships and more from the UvA with the request to send it to our members. Since we do not want to spam, we decided to publish all this information in our newsletter. Of course we will forward the urgent messages immediately.

Plugged! - Etcetera's Own Band Night

Etcetera is proud to present the very first edition of PLUGGED, a one-night only event that's all about new music! We're looking for three or four bands to play that night, preferably ones with fellow students. So are you in a band that writes their own original songs? Then please send us an email, subject PLUGGED, and we'll contact you ASAP! If you've got some video or audio, please send that along as well!

Member Weekend

Etcetera is busy brainstorming about the very first member weekend EVER in the history of our student association. Another great event that you do not want to miss! Before we make any decisions about this, we would like to hear from you if you are interested in joining us on this little trip. We are thinking about renting a group accommodation in Holland to spent 3 days and 2 nights there between the resits and the start of the second semester in January. If you want to come with us, send us an email, subject Member Weekend, and we will keep you posted!
